

CMCA Ministry & Prayer Newsletter Feb. 3rd, 2017

1. Please pray for sister Rochelle of the Nepali church who is fighting cancer

Pastor Peter Upreti the Nepali church planter's only daughter who is undergoing Chemo therapy. On Jan 25 th bacteria was detected in her blood and she is now being treated with antibiotics. Please pray for Pastor Peter's family as they are concerned about their only daughter's struggle with this disease. Please pray for the spiritual and physical battles that the Nepali church are going through as they try to live the victorious life.

Pastor Peter has shaved his head in solidarity with his daughter

2. Arab Church

They need teachers and helpers to look after the nearly 20 young children. The Holy Spirit church (35-40members) that is reaching out to the Arab populations in GTA has many church members who are going through various trials.

Please pray for: Brother Essam who has cancer. A couple with marital conflict. A family of Syrian refugees. An old couple who have pain in their joints.

3. Please pray for the CMCA leader's prayer meeting

Every last Saturday of the month (8 : 00 – 10 : 30 am)

Church leaders gather and pray for their members and the evangelization of their respective countries. May God lead the nations through the presence of the Holy Spirit in 2017.

4. Please pray for:

- CMCA workers training (Feb. 14th – April 25th). "Friendship with Muslims"
- For the planting of churches within the Hispanic and African communities.
- That the Holy Spirit would empower the CMCA pastors and meet all their needs.

Paster Ihsan and brother Essam
